The date is May 27. It sounds like a long way away but Our Lady of Peace is already collecting items. They want your used, unbroken and unwanted items for the Church Yard Sale this coming May. The proceeds will benefit OLP and Mac's Kitchen, a food pantry serving the Appomattox community. They will take almost anything and PICK IT UP AT YOUR LOCATION! They want your used working appliances, tools, clothing, toys, kitchen items and even furniture. So start cleaning out that garage and those closets now. They have already collected two truck loads!

Prayer Chain: I am updating the prayer chain. If you wish to be notified of matters that need prayer, or other important parish events you will now be messaged on your phone or computer. This will allow everyone to receive information in a more timely fashion and keep the chain going. If you want to be part of the prayer chain you MUST send me your phone number for a text or an email for a message. Beginning March 1, 2023 the prayer chain will be only by written messages.

My information is Cathy O'Callaghan 434-942-9722 or skippyoc@me.com.

Prayer chain requests can come from anyone, just notify me if you need prayers, or know of someone who needs prayers. Father Jim also notifies me when prayers are needed, or information needs to be dispersed.

If you do not use a computer or have a cell phone that receives text messages and want to be notified of prayer chain events, please give me your phone number and I will call you directly.
