St. Joseph the Worker Kudos: Our thanks and appreciation go out to John and Thom Reutter for picking up and installing the new faucet in the sink of the Parish Hall kitchen! What was thought to possibly be a major water pressure or piping issue turned out to be a relatively minor fix as a result of John's investigation and their combined skills. Washing dishes in that sink will now be a pleasure . . . well, almost. Thank you, John & Thom!

The Religious Education Ministry needs your support during the 2021-2022 school year. No level of support is too small! Please sign up in the church hall at the ministries table or contact Leah Carwile (434)283-7298 carwileclan@gmail.com

How Can You Help??

I am sure many of you are asking how you can help to make the bazaar a success. Easy, just sign up to bring your favorite frozen casserole or frozen dessert. The sign up sign is on the easel in the hall. It is bright and colorful, I know you can find it. Helping in this way will allow you to make and freeze your creations on your schedule. Thanks for any help you can give us! Please include a list of the ingredients on the outside of your frozen item as well as directions for preparation. Foil containers and lids will be available in the hall beginning October 24th.

Doll House Raffle

Our very own Claudette DeVercelly has made her third amazing doll house to raffle off for Women's Guild. Claudette will be selling tickets at $2.00 each in the hall each Sunday until the drawing on December 19th. Claudette has pictures of this beautiful, fully furnished, creation. Best of luck!
